

FASHIONABLE FUNDRAISING

Greater Clevelanders feel good about looking good when stylish clothing and support for important causes intersect

By Jacqueline Mitchell

Generations of Clevelanders have been known for their generosity. Whether giving to worthy causes or supporting charitable organizations and cultural institutions, the region's collective kindness comes in all shapes and sizes. It's not uncommon for charitable fundraisers to involve galas or dinners that invite attendees to put a fashionable foot forward by dressing up for the occasion.

Continued on Page 63