

Ganley Volkswagen of Bedford Wins Prestigious Award

It was recently announced that Ganley Volkswagen of Bedford won the coveted 2014 Wolfsburg Crest Club Award, ranking among the nation's top Volkswagen dealers. Garnering this prestigious award means that Ganley Volkswagen has met the highest German standards for customer satisfaction, parts sales, new vehicle sales, certified pre-owned sales and service excellence. Less than 5% of VW dealers in the country win this award.

"The Wolfsburg Crest Club Award validates everything the Ganley team has been building upon in terms of delivering top customer satisfaction, new and pre-owned sales, and parts and service excellence," said General Manager Michael Friedman. "This is the highest award a dealership can receive from Volkswagen and we're proud to be a part of this prestigious group. You can always replace a car, but you can't replace a customer."

Friedman told us that this is the 4th year in a row the dealership has won this award and there will be a celebration party in June for current and future customers.

Jeremy Eisenberg, Tom Ganley and Michael Friedman receive the Wolfsburg Crest Club Awards.

Human Trafficking: Modern Day Slavery is Theme of NCJW Women's Seder

Women of all generations are invited to enjoy the National Council of Jewish Women's Annual Women's Seder at Point East Community room, 27500 Cedar Rd., Beachwood on Monday, March 16. Although the theme this year – Human Trafficking: Modern Day Slavery – is a serious issue, the Seder will feature a fun and informative night of good food, storytelling, song, and tradition.

Human Trafficking is NCJW's newest initiative. NCJW/Cleveland is currently exploring the crime and researching ways in which the organization can collaborate with other organizations in the area to help raise awareness of this modern day slavery and help victims of the crime. With freedom from slavery as the overriding theme of the Pass-over celebration, NCJW has deemed human trafficking an appropriate and timely topic on which to focus this year.

Doors open at 6 p.m. Cost is $25 for adults and $15 for children 12 and younger. RSVP requested by March 9. Call 216.378.2204.
