NCJW DESIGNER DRESS DAYS

Oct. 23-27 | Beachwood

There's no skimping at the National Council of Jewish Women's Designer Dress Days. The 47th edition of the annual fundraising event will feature "beautiful furs," "wonderful designer bargains" and luxury accessories at "better-than-affordable prices," including a luxurious designer red purse, with the price whittled down from $2,000-plus to $200. (Some fashions are shown at right.) Money raised will go toward NCJW's operating expenses and community service projects. Also great: The host Mandel JCC has plenty of entertainment options for family members not keen on shopping.
