

Zasa

Shaker Heights' Zasa earns NCJW service award

Shelli Zasa of Shaker Heights has received the 2015 National Council of Jewish Women/Cleveland's Alice and Eugene Weiss Esteemed Service Award.

The award is given to an outstanding volunteer who donates her time to NCJW's non-community service programs.

Zasa is a regular volunteer at Thriftique Showroom, NCJW's retail resale store, where she has worked every Friday and Saturday for the past four years. She is a member of the NCJW/Cleveland board of trustees and also has served as co-chair of finance for Designer Dress Days, for which she volunteers each year. She participates as an NCJW representative in Greater Cleveland Congregations.

A Cleveland native, Zasa graduated from Shaker Heights High School and received a bachelor's degree in elementary education from The Ohio State University in Columbus. She has worked as a teacher and in retailing, marketing and financial planning.

Zasa and her husband, Richard, have two children and three grandchildren.

---